

Preliminary Program by Tracks

	Management/ Leadership	Cultural Heritage Preservation & Promotion	Information Access for Adults	Information Access for Children & Youth	Workforce Management	Health Literacy	Technology
Friday, August 6	8:00-9:45am	Saving An Urban Library In Tough Times	Online Access to the Hidden Treasures in the Birmingham Public Library	U.S. National Libraries Serving Communities through Collaboration and Networks	Defending the Right to Read: Reality Literature for Teens and Tweens	When Opportunity Knocks... How Shall I Answer?	Separating Healthcare Facts from Fiction: Access, Awareness and Advocacy	Beyond the Book: Using Digital Technology to Enhance the Power of Black Literature for Children and Teens
		What About Your Friends? How Support Groups Can Enhance Your Library Services	Perserving Our Culture: Public African American Research Libraries	Thinking Outside of the Institution: Using Collaboration to Promote Student Learning	IL+2=P(Information Literacy plus Parents and Students Equal Progress) (poster session)	The Academic Librarian as Mentor: Helping Students Along the Academic Journey	Healthy Spirit: Collaborative Model for Health Information Literacy Outreach	Libraries and Universities in Second Life
	9:45am-10:45am	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase
		What Are You Doing With Your Statistics?	Hidden in Plain View: African American Resources in the Special Collections of the Library of Congress	Advocating For Our Changing Communities: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow	Adolescent Self-Esteem and Information Seeking Skills	What Can Certification Do for You?	Partners in Consumer Health : the Morehouse School of Medicine Library and the Atlanta/Fulton Public Library System	Leadership for Building a Collaborative Black Digital Library
	10:45-12noon	Going Green: Making History with Alabama's First LEED Certified Public Library		Library Services for A Unique Community: TRIO Library Collaboration (poster session)	Addressing the Needs of Our Students: Integrating Multiple Standards with Student Achievement	Information Literacy for College and Beyond (poster session)	Pathways to Pathfinders: Academic Librarians and Researching Credible Data in the World Wide Web for Minorities	Evolution of the Subject Guide from Paper to 2.0
		Dual Use Library: A Program for Serving and Bridging the Underserved	Appraising Black/ Ethnic Archival Collections : Ethical Issues & Implications for Inequity Access Cultural Diversity in Libraries Aboard	Buddies In Actions: Building Information Literacy Partnership Among HBCUs		The Academic Librarian's Role in Community Engagement (poster session)		African Americans and the Digital Divide: How Mobile Devices Can help Bridge the Gap (poster session)
	12 noon - 2:00 pm	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon
		Failing at Success: Taking the Walk of Shame and What They Don't Tell You in Doctoral Programs.	Putting the "B" Back into Black History Month Programs	Adult Summer Reading Grows in Brooklyn	Empowering 21st Century Learners for 21st Century Living: School Libraries Bridging the Digital Divide	Library job Searches and Candidate Self-Disclosure : Gender but not Ethnicity	Medical Librarianship: Bachelors in Science Not Required	One Community's Efforts to Raise Digital Literacy Rates Using Volunteers
	2:00pm-3:15pm	The Art of Strategic Persuasion: Essential Skills for Leaders	Researching Your Family History: How To Begin			Librarian 2.0: Exploring Innovative Methods to Increase Minority Representation in Librarianship		Web 2.0...What Is It Really Good For? It's Absolutely Your Choice
		Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase
	3:15pm-4:15pm
		Succession Planning: The Basic for Success	Gee's Bend Quilters: Bridging the Gap Between Cultures		The World is Round As Well As Brown: Preparing Young Readers For A Global Society Through Literature	Increasing the Diversity of Library and Information Science Faculty Through Earning the PhD	Service Continuity: Disaster Planning Fundamentals
	4:15pm-5:30pm

Saturday, August 7
	Management/ Leadership	Cultural Heritage Preservation & Promotion	Information Access for Adults	Information Access for Children & Youth	Workforce Management	Health Literacy	Technology
8:00am-9:45am	How Do I Get on That Board? The Election Process In Librarianship	Southern Civils Rights Collections: Bridging the Digital Gap	The Significance of the 1890 Land Grant Institutions: 120 years of Economic Research	Encouraging our Sons to Read: A Community Call to Action	Talking Points: Techniques for Structuring Talks		Technology and HBCU Libraries: An Exploratory Study
	The Psychology of Diversity		Unwelcomed: Equity of Access to Unserved and Underserved Population in Libraries	African and African American Images in Newbery Award Winning Titles	The Author's Best Friend: Librarians as Achitects of Literary Festivals	Take Two Pills Twice Daily: Recognizing and Responding to Low Health Information Literacy for Non- Medical Librarians
9:45 am - 11:00 am	Everyone A Leader, Everyone A Change Agent: Skills and Tools That Facilitate Positive Changes in Libraries					Social Security Programs, Benefits and Online Services
	Speaking the Unspeakable: Getting Comfortable Talking About Compensation	Libraries and the Underground Railroad Bicycle Route	Return on Investment and Information Literacy Programs	Here's the Missing Piece to Your Lesson Plan: Integrating African American Literature Into Curricula Areas	Moving In, Moving Up: Recruitment, Retention and Advancement of African American Male Librarians	Healthy Reads: Exploring Health Conditions Through Popular Literature
11:00am-12noon	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase	Exhibits and Vendor Showcase
12 noon - 2:00pm	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon	Authors Luncheon
2:00pm-3:15pm	Working Together Produces Results: Library Leadership's Role in Community Collaboration	The Activist Librarian in the 21st Century	Library Lunchtime Lecture: Invite, Involve and Inform a Community (poster session)	Inspiring the Next Generation of Black Men: Positive Images for Young Male Readers	Reinventing Recruitment Strategies for Librarianship, Within Non-Traditional Populations (poster session)	Health Resources for Teens and Children
	Embedding Librarians with Liaison Departments (poster session)			The Role of Children's Librarians in Promoting Diversity Through Storytelling			